

SECOND ARMY MAY BE CALLED FIRST OF YEAR

War Department Considers Calling of Second Increment

Mobilization of First Draft Army Shows There Will Be Big Deficiency for the Army Divisions—Clothing and Equipment Shortage May Delay Operations.

Washington, Oct. 12.—Discussion of the advisability of expediting the call for the second increment of the draft army now in progress at the war department and it appears likely that the date may be fixed for some time in December or January.

Mobilization of the first increment of 687,000 men is now far enough advanced to show clearly that there will be a big deficiency for the seven national army divisions. More than 250,000 of the first increment are still to be assembled, but it already is evidence that there will be available at the sixteen cantonment quarters for an additional regiment at each post and at some for a full brigade of two regiments.

The strength of the new regimental organization is 3,600 men. With a regiment lacking at each cantonment, this alone would mean a shortage of nearly 50,000 men. In addition there has been authorized a separate division of negro troops, which means nearly 30,000 men withdrawn from the original number assigned to the sixteen cantonments.

The shortage is due partially to the necessity of taking out of national army men to fill up national guard divisions. Two army divisions of southern troops have been absorbed in this way. The remnants of three other southern national army divisions will be consolidated to form a single divisional unit and the surplus men from other camps will be sent south to make up the missing divisions.

Drafts on the National Army forces also must be made to fill up the enlisted personnel of the aviation service, the medical corps, and the service battalions needed behind the fighting lines abroad. Eventually there will be 250,000 men in the last named service alone and aviation and the medical service will take nearly as many more than not all of them will be taken from the national army.

Operating to delay the calling out of the second increment to make good these shortages are several factors. Clothing and equipment is coming forward only at a rate that can meet the demands of the forces already called and the railways of the country have been overburdened with the job of moving the army and its necessities without hindering freight shipments vital to the allies. Fixing the date of the call for the second increment probably hinges also upon the careful study being made by Provost Marshal General Crowder and his assistants of the results of the plan followed in assembling the men called first. Many questions have arisen which it may be desired to avoid hereafter and substitute regulations to guide both local and district boards prepared in the light of what actual experience taught, may be issued to govern the second call.

CLAIM FARMERS ARE HOARDING POTATOES

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—The farmer immune from the anti-hoarding law, is hoarding his potatoes, according to Harry A. Wheeler, food director of Illinois under Mr. Hoover. Mr. Wheeler issued a warning that as the crop was the greatest on record, the farmers were riding to a fall. He said that when the hoard began to disgorge it would come all at once, unless the hoarding was stopped and prices would drop to zero. He suggested that the farmer would benefit himself by allowing the movement to follow its normal course.

WAR RISK INSURANCE RATES ARE REDUCED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Reduction of approximately twenty-five per cent recently by the government in war risk insurance rates on vessels traversing the war zone was followed today by a reduction of one third in premiums on the insurance of officers and crews on such vessels. As in the case of the previous reduction, "decrease of risk," was assigned by the government as the impelling cause. The new rate, which is effective immediately, is fifty cents per $100; the old rate was seventy-five cents.

The reduction applies to crews of all American vessels sailing between American ports and all European ports and African ports on the Mediterranean.

BOARD MAY TAKE OVER SMALLER VESSELS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—In its requisitioning of ships Oct. 15, the shipping board is considering taking over all American vessels of more than 1500 tons dead weight capacity instead of 2500 tons as first announced. The great need of trans-Atlantic tonnage, it was said today, has made this step necessary.

REASON OF INACTIVITY OF GERMAN FLEET GIVEN

LONDON, Oct. 12.—The inactivity of the German fleet in the Baltic Sea recently when there were obvious opportunities for attacking Russia, according to a despatch to the Daily Chronicle from Amsterdam, was due to the mutinous outbreak in the German navy. The outbreak affected at least six important units of the fleet, putting them out of action and causing the authorities to doubt the discipline and loyalty of the crews of other large ships. It was impossible, the despatch added to take stern measures on a large scale against the offenders, because that would have increased the peril.

GERMAN MINISTER OF MARINE RESIGNS

Frankfurter Zeitung Reports Resignation of Vice-Admiral von Capelle.

Amsterdam, Oct. 12.—Vice-Admiral von Capelle, the German minister of marine, has resigned, according to the Frankfurter Zeitung.

Vice Admiral Edward von Capelle was one of the administrative directors in the ministry of marine before the war and had served as a captain at sea. In March 1916, he succeeded Admiral von Tirpitz as imperial minister of the navy. Several times since then von Capelle has appeared before the reichstag with optimistic statements regarding the progress of the unrestricted submarine campaign as late as August 26, 1917, defending the U-boat policy of his predecessor and himself at a meeting of the reichstag main committee.

Vice Admiral von Capelle announced in the reichstag last Wednesday that a plot had been discovered in the navy to paralyze the efficiency of the fleet and force government to make peace. He said that the guilty parties had received their just deserts and attempted to link Socialists with the plot. The imperial German chancellor, Dr. Michaelis, also spoke of the existence of a conspiracy in the navy and asserted that certain deputies were involved in the revolt.

The Socialists and their newspapers have attacked both the chancellor and the vice admiral for their statements.

ANNOUNCE GENERAL METHOD OF REQUISITION

Member of Shipping Board Notifies Ship Owners

Government Will Requisition Cargo Ships of More Than 2,500 Tonnage and Passenger Vessels of More Than 2,500 Tonnage Oct. 15th.

Washington, Oct. 12.—Announcement of the general method by which the American Merchant Marine is to be requisitioned Oct. 15 by the government was made tonight by Bainbridge Colby, of the shipping board in a notice to ship-owners.

The requisition will include at first only cargo ships of more than 2,500 tons dead weight capacity and passenger vessels of more than 2,500 gross tons register. The limit probably will be lowered soon to include craft of more than 1,500 tons.

The notification sent to ship-owners reads:

"The United States shipping board hereby gives notice to all owners of ships registered and enrolled under the laws of the United States that the requisition of all American steamers described below and of which previous announcement has been made, will become operative and effective on October 15, 1917, at noon.

"1.—The ships affected by said requisition and included therein are (a) all cargo ships able to carry not less than 2,500 tons total dead weight, including bunkers, water, and stores.

"(b) All passenger steamers of not less than 2,500 tons gross register.

"2.—(a) as to all steamers in, or bound to American ports on October 15, 1917, requisition becomes effective after discharge of inward cargo and ship is put in ordinary condition.

"(b) as to steamers which have started to sea, their outward cargo, requisition becomes effective at noon on Oct. 15, 1917 and accounts as to hire and experience will be judged from time steamer began to load.

"3.—Steamers trading to and from American ports that have sailed on their voyage prior to Oct. 15, 1917, at noon, are to complete that voyage as promptly as possible and report for requisition.

"4.—Steamers that are occupied in trades between foreign ports shall be requisitioned as of October 15, 1917, at noon, and accounts adjusted accordingly.

"5.—(a) owners whose steamers are operating in their regular trades are to continue the operation of their steamers for account of the government as they have been doing for themselves, until they receive further instructions.

"(b) owners whose steamers are chartered to others, will apply to the shipping board for instructions regarding the future employment of said steamers."

NEGRO SOLDIERS ARE ORDERED WITHDRAWN

Guardman Kills a Carpenter Employed at Camp Ordway

After Shooting Seven Hundred Workmen Refuse to Work Until Negro Guard is Withdrawn—Civilian Watchmen May Replace Troops.

Washington, Oct. 12.—Negro soldiers on guard duty at Camp Ordway here were ordered withdrawn tonight after the killing of Andrew J. Cooper, an aged carpenter, by Private Jerry Ward and a resulting strike of about 700 workmen. In announcing the order Secretary Baker said no decision had been reached as to who would replace the negroes, members of the first separate Lattation, National Guard but that civilian watchmen probably would be employed until the camp is completed.

Cooper was shot while going into the camp on his way to work. Ward, said the carpenter was not using the proper entrance and failed to obey his command to halt. Friends of the dead man said he was slightly deaf and probably did not hear the sentry.

Ward is held for trial by court martial, the military authorities having refused a request of the district civilian authorities that he be turned over to them. After the shooting, several hundred carpenters and other employees at the camp refused to go to work until the negro guard was withdrawn and the entire force was idle all day.

Camp Ordway is not strictly a military camp, being designed for the training of mechanics for the auto transport service of the quartermaster's department.

RAILROADS MAY ASK GOVERNMENT FOR HELP

Want Money to Maintain and Enlarge Present Plants to Enable Them to Cope With High Tide of Traffic.

Washington, Oct. 12.—Reports that the railroads are considering informally asking the government to help them in some way to obtain money with which to maintain and enlarge their present plants and equipment to enable them to cope with the high tide of traffic are regarded by officials here as forecasting a concerted move soon toward that end.

What form this move will assume apparently has not yet been decided by the roads themselves. It is reported that they have under consideration several courses.

One possible method is a renewed petition for a general increase in freight rates.

Another is to request the government to lend the railroads money on railroad securities. For this, however, special legislation would be necessary.

Other plans, details of which have not been revealed are said to be under consideration.

Railroads at present are earning very nearly as much as last year which marked the high tide but within the last two months operating expenses have shown an increase of about one out of all proportion to the increase in gross receipts.

Railroad executives say that as the government has a practical monopoly through liberty bond issues, of the investment funds of the country, they have found it almost impossible to obtain funds.

WIDEN TO CONSTRUCT MINISTRY OF LIBERALS

LONDON, Oct. 12.—M. Widen who has been asked by King Gustave of Sweden to form a cabinet will attempt to construct a ministry solely of liberals, says the Stockholm correspondent of the Daily Mail. Hjalmar Zranting and his associates in the Socialist party will be excluded by M. Widen, who is a moderate liberal. It is the correspondent's opinion that M. Branting will not be sorry to be excluded, as popular discontent is likely to increase during the winter.

As to the effect of the American blockade the correspondent says the manner in which the policy of the United States is to be answered is indicated by the government's announcement that Germany will supply to Sweden, grain, potatoes and sugar, which the Allies have refused. This announcement if realized, will naturally stimulate the pro-German trend of public opinion developed by the Washington news of the last few days, the despatch says. It adds that particular resentment has been provoked in the press and by the statement that the Swedish delegates to the United States had suppressed the fact in relation to Sweden's exportation of iron ore to Germany.

WILL PROSECUTE PRICE BOOSTERS

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—Federal and state authorities were expected today to take steps in the prosecution of men alleged to be responsible for hoarding and fixing milk prices in Chicago. Evidence has been collected and its presentation to a grand jury is expected to result in requests for the indictment of officials of the milk producers' association.

War News Summarized

For the first time since he started his series of attacks against the German positions in Flanders, Field Marshal Haig has had to cease an operation before all the objectives were attained. It was not the German guns, however, that stopped the British. It was a more than usually heavy rainfall which started during the battle and turned the already swampy region over which the men were supposed to pass into a veritable quagmire from which they could not untrack themselves for a forward move. The drive as has been customary in Haig's strategy was started in the early hours of Friday morning and extended from near the Houtholst wood to below the Ypres-Menin road. At several points the British troops succeeded in gaining ground over fronts ranging up to a thousand yards, but here the rain intervened and the fighting ceased for the day. During the forward movement over the six miles from the British captured in the aggregate about six hundred prisoners.

The struggle was particularly bitter to the north of Poperinghe and around Passchendaele. In the latter region the Germans apparently have massed their strongest array of troops hopeful of being able to stop a further press forward by the British toward the Ostend-Lille railroad.

The Germans were expecting the battle, for several hours prior to the signal for the British to attack they laid down a heavy barrage fire all along the line, interspersing the rain of steel and explosive shells with asphyxiating gas bombs.

Considerable artillery activity still prevails between the French and Germans along the Chemin des Dames in Champagne and on the Ypres sector, but no important infantry engagements have taken place. Likewise in the Austro-Italian theater and in Macedonia the big guns are doing all the work, except for reconnoitering and outpost encounters in the latter region.

Along the Pskoff road in the Riga sector on the Russian front the Russians again have been forced to give ground to the Germans under a heavy artillery fire. Further south, however, the Russians in counter-attacks have recaptured the trenches which the Germans took from them Wednesday.

Unofficial reports from Amsterdam are to the effect that Vice Admiral von Capelle the German minister of marine has resigned. Since his exposure of the mutiny on board German battleships at Wilhelmshaven, von Capelle has been violently attacked by the independent Socialists and the Socialist newspapers generally.

OTTUMWA, Ia., Oct. 12.—Fred E. Mr. White is a native of Germany, was making a patriotic address for the Red Cross at Van Wert a week ago when stricken. His efforts to make himself heard while a merry-go-round was operating on the grounds, is believed to have caused the attack which was light. His condition today shows improvement.

Mrs. W. H. Robb, of Creston, his daughter is at his bedside.

SOLDIERS SUBSCRIBE LARGE SUM TO LOAN

ROCKFORD, Ill., Oct. 12.—The 343rd Infantry at Camp Grant today subscribed $222,850 to the Liberty loan. More than 81 per cent of all the men in the regiment purchased one or more bonds. Hereafter no man will be discharged from the army because of foot ailments until orthopedic treatment has been given, the order recites.

Plans for establishing a base hospital at Fort Snelling to take care of seriously ill members of the National Army at Camp Dodge have at least been temporarily abandoned, it indicated by recent reductions of the staff by transfers to other camps and posts.

NEW YORK HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS STRIKE

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—An increase from forty to eighty minutes in the school day here for military training, was given as the cause of a strike today of a number of high school students. WOOD AND KEANE GUILTY OF MURDER

First East St. Louis White Rioters to Be Convicted

Witnesses Testify Defendants Dragged Negro Along Streets with Rope Fastened About His Neck—Three More White Men to Be Tried Next Week.

Bellefonte, Ill., Oct. 12.—Herbert Wood and Leo Keane the first white men to go on trial on charges of murder growing out of the East St. Louis race riots of last July were found guilty by a jury in the circuit court this afternoon. Ten negroes were found guilty last Sunday and each were given indeterminate sentences of fourteen years.

The men were jointly charged with the murder of Scott Clark, a negro. Witnesses for the state testified that Wood and Keane were dragging Clark along the street by a rope, which had been fastened about his neck. Keane is but 17 years old.

Next Monday the state will try to prove three more white men guilty of murder of two negroes and of the killing of a white man who was slain by a stray bullet.

The known number of persons slain in the East St. Louis race riots of July 2 is forty-seven. It was believed by many investigators that scores of bodies were burned in fires that destroyed negro homes.

The riots were the result of the work of the negro mob that on the night of July 1 fired into an automobile load of police officers killing one outright and wounding two, one of whom died later.

The grand jury reported that the riots were due to agitators spreading the rumors that each race was arming for a slaughter. The hostility of the whites to the negroes was due largely to a feeling that the presence of a large number of negroes in the city handicapped white workmen in negotiating with capital.

DISTINCTION FOR BUNDLE CARRIERS.

In some cities, Quincy among the number, they have started the sale of Red Cross package seals. These seals are in the hands of merchants who purchase them at 1 cent each and each store customer who offers to carry home his package will have one of the seals affixed to the package. In the stores placards call attention to the Red Cross package seal plan and customers are asked to offer to carry their packages and to ask for the seal. This excellent plan will not doubt be practiced in a widespread way and will have beneficial results in more ways than one. The man or woman who carries a package from a store will be doing a patriotic service in cutting down the cost of doing business, and by the saving effected is making a direct contribution to the Red Cross fund. No doubt the Red Cross workers, who have been so active in many lines here, will at no distant day introduce the package seal and by precept and practice make it distastefully popular.

RETIRED MEN CALLED INTO NEW ACTIVITY.

A number of retired farmers who live in Jacksonville are said to be feeling better physically this fall than has been true of them for several years past. The reason lies in the fact that these retired farmers have been helping on their farms which in most instances were turned over to their sons to operate when they became residents of Jacksonville.

The increasing scarcity of farm labor has induced these "retired" farmers to lend a hand. In most cases they were assigned tasks somewhat lighter than those given to younger men and their hours in the fields have not been so long. But nevertheless, the sum total of labor contributed by retired men has been considerable this fall. There is every indication that during the coming year they will have a still greater opportunity for helping. Already many farm workers have gone from the country to army service and many others will doubtless go in the latter months of this year or the early months of 1918.

After all, the worst thing that can happen to a retired farmer who is in reasonably good health is to have nothing to do. As has been so often said before, he is much more likely to rust out than to wear out, and so these days of further service on the farm are beneficial to these men. By this work they are doing their part to help increase production and at the same time are increasing their own good health.

CAMPAIGN FOR FARM ADVISOR.

Sidney B. Smith representing the United States Department of Agriculture will start the campaign for membership and funds to secure a county agricultural adviser in this county on Monday, Oct. 15 and will close his work here on the 3rd of November.

Meetings have been arranged as follows:
Liberberry, Monday, Oct. 15.
Murrayville, Tuesday, Oct. 16.
Chapin, Wednesday, Oct. 17.
Lynnville, Thursday, Oct. 18.
Orleans, Friday, Oct. 19.
Franklin, Saturday, Oct. 20.
Announcement of other meetings will be made later. It is planned to hold meetings in Scott county after Mr. Smith has completed his tour of Morgan county.

HONORING THE REGULARS.

It is but natural that members of the national guard who have been federalized and members of the new national army should be given more attention by the "folks at home" than is true of the men in the regular army. Most of the guardsmen and those in the new national army have more home ties than do the men in the regular army. Nevertheless in the present keen interest in army men and army affairs, the fighting men of the regular army—men hardened to the service, who forge ahead in the work outlined for them and say little—should not be forgotten. An editorial in the Chicago Post along this line:

"The regular of our army is an independent, carefree fighting man who never will complain in any campaigning circumstances, but we should like to say a word in behalf of this straight-duty soldier who goes ahead with his task and does not whimper because the other fellows get all the goodies and the attentions from the folks at home."

"So much has been made of our national army men and of our National Guardsmen, whose home ties are perhaps stronger than those of our regulars, that the man who enlisted under Uncle Sam's flag to fight as a "sure-enough regular" is receiving less thought and less of the good things of life which thought prompts men and women to give.

"The regular will not ask for anything except that which is his due from the constituted military authorities. He can growl, perhaps, as frequently as any civilian, but he grows only when he knows he is not getting what the law intends that he shall get. For mollycoddling he cares not a bit, but he is just as human as any selective service men or National Guardsman in this whole broad land.

"In the days when solicitude is felt for the welfare of the "selected" and the guardsman, let some heart thought go out to the regular. He does not get as many "letters from home" as the other men get. Frequently, the regular has no family ties except that of the great human family. No one ever asks anything about the fighting qualities of the regular, because the question is unnecessary. He is only liked when he is dead. He won't ask for kind thoughts or kind gifts, but he will be grateful if he gets them. The American people should not forget the foremost fighting man in all their world."

PLOTS ARE DEEP SEATED

Not only information given out by the government but information revealed from private sources continues to indicate that long before the war began Germany was laying plans for a world conquest or at least was guarding against alliances among other powers which might stand in her way. One of the recent incidents of this kind made known is that eight years ago when a movement was started for the celebration of 100 years of peace between America and Great Britain, German interests formed a number of associations to foster interest in German affairs, to erect monuments over the graves of eminent German-Americans and to give particular publicity to historic roles played by Germans in the U. S. For the same inspiration there was immediately formed an association of Irish-American interests, both intended to detract as much as possible from the prominence given to the cordial relations between the U. S. and Great Britain.

A leader in the movement for the proposed celebration has recently made known that it was within a very few weeks after the announcement of plans that the German propagandists became busy. No great importance was attached to the matter at the time, and it is only in the light of more recent events that there is an understanding of the German thought behind their action.

But this instance is just one of many that the people here are now beginning to understand, and when all the facts about German propagandists and German intrigues are finally revealed, still other seemingly insignificant matters will no doubt take on prominence.

THE ONLY TERMS.

English steadfastness of purpose in this great war is clearly reflected in these editorials taken from the London Observer.

Those who imagine that the issue can be doubtful if the Allies remain firm for another year are incapable of military and economic reasoning. In two articles this week Lord Northcliffe, who is doing excellent work in America, did just the thing that was needed by describing the progress of the American effort. It means that America is out for victory, for a thorough reckoning, for a safe settlement, and for nothing else. It means that the whole weight of a mighty society is about to be thrown into the scales when Germany and her partners are gradually verging towards exhaustion. The United States will never accept defeat, nor anything but decisive and unquestionable victory. Neither will Britain, nor France, nor Italy, since for each of them the reaction from failure, or even from semi-failure, would mean sheer anarchy.

But everything that the Allies desire will be hastened if they make it plain that no handshakes, no amnesty, no half-measures, will put them off. They must have unconditional evacuation and compensation for Belgium, reparation for the devastated districts of Northern France, as well as the restoration of Alsace-Lorraine, the breaking of German and Magyar ascendancy over other races in the East; and, in addition to all this, a form of Government in Germany whose policy and whose good faith can be trusted by the free nations of the world. The Hohenzollern tradition of deliberate militarism, scientific perfidy, and merciless aggression must end for ever. And this does not mean a never-ending war, as the Pacifists suggest with the purpose of weakening our people. It only means another year's war waged unsparringly and unwaveringly by the Allies with every means that their man-power, machine-power, and economic leverage enable them to bring into play.

TOO MANY ABLE BODIED MEN AT SOLDIERS' HOME

Some Wealthy Men There Keep Out Deserving Veterans of Small Means—Other Matters of Interest Developed When State Institution Was Inspected.

L. Goheen and Frank Wigginst have returned from Quincy where they went as members of committee appointed by the G. A. R. commander to visit the Soldiers' home. Members of the committee did not visit all the various departments in a body but some went to the cottages, some to the administration building and others to the kitchen and hospital. Mr. Goheen and Dr. Lawson of Galesburg inspected the hospital and found the invalids well cared for by the attendants, the rooms and beds clean and in good condition. Members of the committee were entertained at a splendid dinner by Supt. and Mrs. Andrews.

Before returning to Jacksonville Mr. Goheen went to Lebanon, Ill., where he attended a reunion of his regiment, the 117th, at McKendree College. Only twenty seven members of the regiment were present, as seventeen have died during the past year. Students of the college furnished an excellent musical program and a good dinner was served by the faculty to all of the veterans. The association was invited to hold its reunion each year at the college and this offer was accepted.

The following statement about the inspection visit to the home is taken from the Quincy Herald. It will appear from a reading of this report that the home is now badly overcrowded and some change of rules will be necessary in order to cut down the number of those resident in the home.

The inspection committee of the Illinois Department of the Grand Army of the Republic rendered its annual services at the Soldiers Home on Wednesday. The Committee made a searching, close examination in all methods and ministrations of the Home and reported finding very satisfactory and approved conditions. The worst criticism was made on the bread served daily to members, but A. L. Bowen of Springfield, state superintendent of charities and general manager of all Illinois Institutions, who was present taking due interest in the proceedings, said that the same bread conditions prevailed everywhere. The main difficulty exists in the effort to substitute soft wheat flour for hard wheat flour—which is now comparatively scarce.

Mr. Brown said expert bakers had been sent to different state institutions to teach best methods for using soft wheat, with some degree of success. He also said that at the present time it was difficult to secure services of the best bakers.

Crowded and Why.
The home is now crowded to its utmost capacity and with the near approach of winter weather it is anticipated there will be increasing applications for admittance. Under such circumstances it was regretted that the state board, under its rulings had admitted all applicants without considering their means of self support. Capt. Andrews said there was one member of the Home who received $7,000 in one draft, and there were others who were well to do farmers, large land holders, one especially owning 400 acres of land. Objections were also made to the admission of able-bodied Spanish-American war veterans. Even if they enter when in sickness they should go as soon as restored to health, it was urged. A strong resolution was adopted discouraging admission to state support of those having wealth thus barring those in unfortunate conditions.

Less Food, More Exercise.
Dr. Law said that as a rule the people everywhere ate too much and he believed that if members of the Home consumed less food and were given more exercise, they would have less chronic indigestion and would possess clearer views on all subjects.

The Committee approved the service of Superintendent Andrew and gave a rising vote of thanks for courtesies he extended.

Rippling Rhymes By WALT MASON

SHE KNOWS

The neighbors come around at eve, and talk with me of war and gore; and loudly I lament and grieve that I can't go and slay a score. I tell the neighbors what I'd do, if I were not so old and fat; the fleeing Hun I would pursue, and cleave his head and spoil his hat. And as I talk of battle's din, of honor's call and glory's charm, my wife, she listens with a grin—she knows I am a false alarm. She knows I hate to move a step, I'm wedded to my easy chair; she knows I hardly have the pep to comb the sandbars from my hair. She hands me now and then a glance that's loaded down with meaning deep; it seems to say, "Were you in France, you'd hunt a quiet place to sleep." The neighbors hear my war-like spiel, and seem to think I am old Mars; they hear me talk of blood and steel, of death and bones and wounds and scars. I slip things over on the rubes, and make them think I yearn for strife; a man may fool a bunch of boobies—alas, he cannot fool his wife. Oh, now and then she hands me one, a glance that says, "I'd bet a farm you lack the vim to fire a gun;" she knows that I'm a false alarm.

APPELLATE COURT RULES ON STATE'S ATTORNEY'S SALARY

The decision of the appellate court in finding against the state's attorney of Logan county, who made a claim against the county for $400 a year in addition to the $3,500 salary provided by law, is of interest here. A similar situation came about in Morgan county as a result of a claim filed by the estate of the late Robert Tilton. The following is a statement of the case in Logan county and the court's action:

"The case of state's attorney C. E. Smith against Logan county, for salary claimed due, which was decided for the county yesterday by the appellate court is one of the most interesting cases that has been in the local courts for some time.

"Smith claimed that the statute which fixed the state's attorney's salary at $3,500 per annum meant $3,500 exclusive of the $100 per annum paid by the state. The county took the position that the $400 should be deducted from the $3,500 leaving a net sum of $3,100 per annum to be paid by the county.

"Smith drew his salary from the county on the basis of $3,500 per year for some time, when the supervisors notified him to refund all over $3,100 per year that he had drawn and notified the county clerk to pay him quarterly on the basis of the $3,100.

"For a year and six months Smith refused to draw his quarterly salary and finally sued the county for $5,250 which included the sums he alleged due and interest thereon. Judge Harris in the circuit court gave him a verdict for that amount. The county appealed and the appellate court held that he was entitled to $3,100 annually from the county and $400 to be paid by the state. He was ordered to pay all the costs."

OPENING OF CATSKILL AQUEDUCT

New York, Oct. 12.—Today was a red-letter day for Father Knickerbocker. It marked the completion and formal opening of the Catskill aqueduct, which is to guard this and future generations of New Yorkers against thirst and disease by distributing to every part of the metropolis a daily supply of 500,000,000 gallons of pure water obtained in the Catskill mountains, a hundred miles distant.

The completion of the great water system is to be made the occasion for a three-day celebration, which was opened at noon today with formal ceremonies at the City Hall. At these ceremonies the guest of honor was George B. McClellan, who was mayor of New York when the construction of the Catskill aqueduct was commenced in 1906.

The new aqueduct system is to supersede the old Croton water system, which has supplied the needs of the metropolis for nearly three-quarters of a century. The building of the Catskill aqueduct, the Ashokan reservoirs and other parts of the system involved one of the greatest engineering undertakings in American history. The project has been carried to completion without a single labor disturbance, within contract time and well within the appropriation of $140,000,000.

FIGHT FOR YOUR LIFE

Duty Demands Robust Health

Fight to get it and keep it

Fight—fight day in and day out to prevent being overtaken by illness and old age. Keep wrinkles from marring the cheeks and the body from losing its youthful appearance and buoyancy. Fight when ill-health is coming with its pallor and pains, defects and debilitating powers. Fight to stay its course and drive it off.

But fight intelligently. Don't fight without weapons that can win the day for without the intelligent use of effective weapons the pallor spreads and weakness grows and a seemingly strong man or woman oftentimes becomes a prey to ill-health.

You will not find this class of persons in the hypoferrin ranks. No unhealthy, dull, draggy, droopy persons in that line. It is a hale, hearty, robust aggregation of quick-steppers who view life in a joyous frame of mind and are mentally and physically equal to any emergency. Hypoferrin stands for sound body and sound mind—it is the invigorating tonic of the times—powerful and unsurpassed as a health restorer, vitalizer and health preserver. Fight to hold the vigor of a sound body with hypoferrin or to stay the process of decay and restore health and strength—you win. This tonic of amazing, wonder-working properties has been approved by physicians as a restorer and safeguard of health. It is a thoroughly scientific preparation of the very elements necessary to tone up the stomach and nerves, to build strong, vital tissue, make pure blood, firm flesh and solid, active, tireless muscles.

Hypoferrin contains these mighty strength-producing agents, lecithin and iron peptonate, in a form best adapted to benefit the body and its organs. Its ingredients are absolutely keeping its blood. In nine cases out of ten a run-down condition, sallow, pale complexion that "fall in" feeling and frail bodies are due to lack of lecithin and iron peptonate in the system.

Your mental and physical strength and endurance depends upon a lecithin and iron peptonate laden blood; steady, dependable nerves and a healthy stomach. With these you can meet life at any angle.

This wonder tonic, hypoferrin, which is an perfect as science can get to nature, meets every essential demand of the human organism. It is safe and sure and a boon to run-down, worn-out men and women. Hypoferrin means nature's own way of bringing color to the cheeks, strength to the body and keeping the vigor and buoyancy of youth. The powder and paint way of effecting beauty is not needed by hypoferrin. Women and girls. Their blood, filled with nature's beauty stores, creates conditions that give firmness and grace to the body and the glow of health to the cheeks.

No need of going through life sickly and always feeling miserable in this age of medical science. Join the hypoferrin ranks. It puts into you the springy snap and vigor you ought to have and puts life into your body and mind that inspires the confidence that you confront the world on an equal footing with anyone.

Hypoferrin may be had at your druggist or direct from us for $1.00 per package. It is well worth the price. The Serravallo Remedies Co., Cincinnati, Ohio.

PIERSOL'S FATE HINGES ON FORMATION OF LETTER

Handwriting Expert Testifies For Defense

Witness Trendley, Testifying in Case Against Man Accused of Kidnapping Baby Keets, Asserts That Letters Under Discussion Were Not Written By Same Person

Marshallfield, Mo. Oct. 12.—Interest in the trial of Claude J. Piersol, charged with kidnapping Baby Lloyd Keet, centered today about the formation of the small letter "S" appearing in two sets of letters. One set of the missives was written by the defendant to a friend; the other was the set written to the father of the child demanding ransom.

John M. Trendley, a handwriting expert testifying for the defense swore that the small "S" as well as the letter "P" discussed yesterday by handwriting experts for the state, was a feature of the letters written by Piersol and that the peculiar formation of these letters did not appear in the so-called ransom letters.

Trendley added that the writing in Piersol's letters was uniform and natural while that of the other letters was different.

In his belief he said the two sets of letters were not written by the same person.

The wife of Juror James Hurst was reported critically ill tonight and after a conference with the attorneys the judge permitted the juror to go to his home under the care of a court marshal. By agreement of the attorneys the case could go on without Juror Hurst. The possibility of such an arrangement is under consideration.

The stoicism of Piersol during the trial relaxed tonight and after his return to jail from the court room he gave way to his emotions. The defense expects to close its case tomorrow.

RETURN FROM WESTERN TRIP.

Mr. and Mrs. Ensley Moore returned Friday after an absence of two weeks in the west. They made a visit of a week at the country home of their son, George Moore, in northeastern Nebraska, and later went to Lincoln for a few days' visit. The trip was particularly for the purpose of inspecting their Nebraska farms. The corn crop in northeastern Nebraska is in fine condition this year and gives promise of a return far above the average. Frost has not been as severe in Nebraska as in this locality and practically none of the corn has been damaged by cold weather.

At Lincoln Mr. and Mrs. Moore spent several hours with Mrs. Clara Shibley, formerly of this city. Mrs. Paine is now secretary of the State Historical society. Since going west she has also been active in D. A. R. work, has served as regent of the Lincoln chapter and has held a state office.

REPORTED LOW TEMPERATURE.

The engineer on the night shift at the south end pumping station reported the thermometer recording 19 at the station at 1:30 this (Saturday) morning. The thermometer in front of Gilbert's pharmacy at the same hour, however, only registered 29 degrees.

WILL CELEBRATE MANUFACTURE OF STEEL

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—A celebration to mark the one hundred and seventy-fifth year in the manufacture of steel, including the making of munitions in every American war will be observed by the Wharton Iron and Steel Company at High Bridge, N. J., tomorrow. The company made cannon balls during the revolutionary war. The original company was founded 1742.

LOCALS WILL PLAY CARLINVILLE TODAY

High School Teams Will Battle on Illinois College Grounds.

Jacksonville will have Carlinville High for an opponent on Illinois field this afternoon. The game will start at 2:30 o'clock. John Larson will referee, R. E. Harmon of Illinois college will umpire and Potter of Illinois will act as head linesman. Coach Hoover has been working his men hard all week and they have shown wonderful improvement over their form in the Alton game. Tho the team has lost both to Alton and Springfield the men are not discouraged. According to reports even of Springfield rooters, Jacksonville clearly outplayed Springfield and with a break in the luck would have won the game.

Little is known of the strength of the Carlinville team. Last year the school had a strong team and if graduation did not tear it up it should prove a worthy opponent for Jacksonville today. The locals are going to try hard to put this game on the right side of the ledger and hope to begin a winning streak today that will return them winners in the remaining games of the season.

Coach Hoover said last night that he looked for a hard game but thought his men should win. He said that the attack of Jacksonville would depend largely upon the kind of defense shown by Carlinville. The following men probably will lineup against Carlinville today: Bento Le, Thomas H. Garin Jr., R. Smith, center, Dunn or D. Smith rg, Arter rt, Hunt re, Green rh, Ferguson capt., lh, Fierke fb.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Investigation of Senator La Follette's alleged disloyal speech before the non-partisan league at St. Paul, was continued today by a special senate committee. A temporary halt in the inquiry probably will be ordered until an official statement regarding the Lusitania charges can be had from Mr. Bryan.

The question of peace is said to agitate the great mass of the Russian soldiers.

Headquarters of the delegation while in the city will be maintained at the Dunlap Hotel and the enterprising manager of this well known hostelry, entering into the spirit of the occasion, has invited the entire delegation to partake of a "Burlington Way" breakfast at six o'clock Monday morning at which time the local reception committee will also be present.

Not to be outdone by his neighbor, C. N. Priest of the Priest Garage, has tendered an invitation to his guests to make free use of his modern garage for storage and other purposes during their stay, and the "Rainbow Fleet" as well as the other out of town cars in the tour will be comfortably and safely housed close to the headquarters.

The local committee appreciates the offer of these two progressive and enthusiastic citizens and believes that their kindness and co-operation will redound to the credit of the hospitality of the city.

Free Program on Square
The Hawaiian Singers will give a free concert on the Public Square from 7:00 to 7:30 Monday morning before the starting whistle sounds which will cause the wheels to turn for the long tour to the Gulf of Mexico.

The local committee desires to extend a general invitation to the public to enjoy the concert on the square and also to meet the visitors Sunday afternoon or after church services Sunday evening at the hotel.

New Orleans Ready
President Weber received the following telegram from the Good Roads Bureau of the New Orleans Chamber of Commerce, Friday, which shows the interest the South is taking in the tour and also in the meeting to be held in Corinth, Miss. for the purpose of extending the Highway from Corinth to New Orleans.

"Our Committee anxious to attend Convention at Corinth, nineteenth. However, want it understood, Pilot Car and Party come to New Orleans, via Jackson and Hammond, returning via Gulf Port, if desired. Extensive arrangements for entertainment made at Hammond, La. We wrote all towns south of Jackson, New Orleans will be well represented. Answer immediately." Signed—New Orleans Association of Commerce, Good Roads Bureau.

Secretary Wilhite wired the following answer to the telegram, "Make all arrangements to your liking. Burlington Way 'Rainbow Fleet' will be in your hands at close of Convention on the 19th October."

The entire trip will be replete with entertainment from Commercial Clubs and Good Roads Associations, every town and city on the entire route having made some special preparations for the reception of the "Harbingers of Good Roads" and the tour will make a deep impression on the good roads sentiment of the string of states from Illinois to Louisiana.

H. C. L. WORRIES LATIN-AMERICANS

Santiago, Chile, Oct. 12.—Representatives of labor and trade organizations from nearly all of the Latin-American republics assembled here today for a conference on the high cost of living. Since the beginning of the European war the prices of nearly all the necessities of life have increased to such an extent as to become almost prohibitive in the larger cities of South America. It is felt that unless an early solution is found for the problem great hardship and suffering will result among the poorer classes.

Ora Williams of Exeter was a traveler to the city yesterday.

FOOD CONSERVATION CAMPAIGN IN NEW YORK

Women Make House to House Canvass in Interest of Federal Administration Plans—Food Distributors' Association Formed.

New York, Oct. 12.—An army of 16,000 women today began a house-to-house canvass in this city to obtain pledges from the 1,200,000 housewives for support of the Federal food campaign. This campaign is one of several features characterizing the food situation in Greater New York. Retail merchants, hotels and restaurants are co-operating in food conservation, and a distributors' association has been formed.

The practical features of economy and conservation expected to result from the various activities are two wheatless days, two meatless days and one fireless day. In the house-to-house canvass each housewife is to be asked to sign a pledge card agreeing to obey the rules of the Food Administration. The campaign is to be conducted entirely by volunteers.

In co-operation with this campaign more than 300 retail merchants have unanimously agreed to give a part of their advertising space and store and show window room for the propagation of the National Food Administrator's campaign for food saving.

The Food Administration has asked the retail merchants to bring clearly before the consumers the great benefit that will be rendered the Government by wise and sensible economy in the use and disposal of foods. It urges the retail merchants to organize into a great patriotic corps, who will go out into the service of the country and of humanity and speak on the value and the importance of conserving the nation's food supply in order that American men and their allies may fight with strength and valor the battles of democracy.

In line with this request from the Food Administrator the New York Food Distributors' Association has been formed, composed of authorized representatives of 27 business and trade organizations engaged in the sale and distribution of food commodities in the State and City of New York. The association seeks, it is stated, to concentrate action on all matters relating to the production, transportation, distribution and sale of such commodities with a view of promoting the general welfare not only of its members but of producers and consumers as well.

The association aims further, it is said, to unite its efforts with growers, shippers, and consumers; to collect such information as may be deemed helpful in handling food commodities; to study and put into practice improved methods of distribution; to co-operate with and assist such officials as may be appointed to administer the food problems of the country; to assist in framing and in carrying out necessary legislation in such a manner that it will actually accomplish such changes as appear advisable; and to co-operate with other agencies having similar objects.

A PACIFIC PORT, Oct. 12.—Chemicals placed in the lumber cargo and contrived to ignite spontaneously caused a fire aboard the Steamer Niels Nielsen enroute from Hong Kong to Bombay, according to the captain of the vessel who is here. In connection with the exposition there is also to be held the first national vegetable show in the United States.

The two-day program prepared for the conference provides for practical demonstrations in food preparation and economy by instructors of the home economics departments of the State College of Agriculture.

Gold Tip POST SPADES

We have made a special study of spades for ditching and excavating. For years we have been experimenting—using different grades of steel, different shapes of handles—in an effort to produce a spade light in weight, but strong enough for service and of just the right 'hang'.

We have learned about spades

Perhaps more than any other merchant, and we know we are telling you nothing but the exact truth when we say that GOLD TIP SPADES are the best that have ever been sold for the purpose for which they are intended.

Ask your dealer for them; there are no others "just as good."

This wonderful remedy is without an equal as a blood purifier, being probably the oldest blood medicine on the market. It has been sold by druggists for fifty years.

FOOTBALL SEASON WILL OPEN TODAY

Every Member of Western Conference Will be in Action—Most Interest in Ohio-Northwestern Game—Maroons Play Vanderbilt.

Chicago, Oct. 12.—With practice games out of the way, football elevens of the "Big Ten" will face the first severe tests of the season in contests to be decided today. Every member of the Western Conference will get into action. Development has been rapid in almost all of the camps, and with the shortage of material generally felt some close battles are expected.

The greatest interest is attached to the Ohio-Northwestern game at Columbus as it will be the first clash between the Big Ten teams this year and the closer will be eliminated from the championship. These two elevens fought it out for the Western Conference championship last fall, and Ohio annexed the honors. The Buckeye team is virtually as strong if not stronger, this year. Critics believe it will be a certain contender for the title again as "Chick" Harley, All-American selection, is playing with the same dash speed which characterized his work last fall.

Many Enlistments from Northwestern

Northwestern, on the contrary, has been seriously weakened as a result of enlistments and injuries. Coach Fred Murphy was forced to build up his squad around three or four veterans. Although the Purple team cleaned up on Lake Forest rather easily last Saturday, Murphy is not optimistic concerning the team's chances against Ohio, which in its two early season games, has displayed high scoring power.

The clash between the University of Chicago and Vanderbilt at Stagg Field will be Chicago's first start of the season. Vanderbilt usually has developed a team which usually made a strong bid for championship honors of the south.

Little news has come from the Chicago camp since practice was started three weeks ago and the strength of the remarkably youthful squad is unknown. It is regarded as probable, however, that Coach Stagg will start Higgins at fullback, Elton and Rouse in the half back positions and Chappell or Block at quarter. Gorgas probably will play center. Bondinski and Moulton guards. Jack and Cochrane at tackle and Capt. Breles and McDonald on the ends.

Stagg's team of year ago was ridiculed by enlistments in military service.

Illinois evidently expects to triumph over Oklahoma Saturday for Coach Zuppke of the down state university is already shaping his eleven for the all-important game with Wisconsin a week later. The Illini came out of the Kansas game last Saturday without serious injury. Although Zuppke anticipates a victory over Oklahoma, he figures on a close contest as the visiting eleven has been rolling up large scores over its opponents.

The first two games played by Indiana indicate that Coach Stiehm has developed a "scrappy" eleven with a shortage of material. The players emerged from the Wabash game in fairly good condition and hold no fear of St. Louis University which is to be the attraction at Bloomington Saturday. The game was called off a week ago and then reinstated after St. Louis decided to go through with its schedule. Half Back Jevre, whose leg was damaged in the clash against Wabash, probably will be held in reserve until the Minnesota game.

In Wisconsin

Coach Richards of Wisconsin plans to send his heaviest players against Notre Dame Saturday. The Badgers failed to reveal much driving power against Beloit and critics believe defeat faces them unless a stronger attack is developed. Richards drove his charges through bruising scrimmages all week in an effort to overcome apparent weakness.

Minnesota will take the field Saturday for the first time this season, meeting South Dakota State at Minneapolis. Although the Gophers lost several stars of last year's squad because of the war, supporters of the eleven look to Coach Henry L. Williams to spring one of the surprises of the season.

Michigan will tackle Mt. Union at Ann Arbor in a game, which, critics believe, will go a long way in determining the strength of the Wolverines. Mt. Union always has been capable of giving the me of Yost the stiffest kind of a battle. For the first time in the history of the game at Michigan, the team this year will have no active captain. Decision to this effect was taken in honor of Capt. "Pat" Smith, who is at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station.

The Nebraska eleven which is picked to win the Missouri Valley Conference championship, is looking for no "set-up" in meeting Iowa Saturday. Capt. Davis of the Hawkeyes is playing an unusually brilliant game this season and has been getting wonderful support from Fullbacks Voelkel and Hamilton and Half back Peterson. Although a newcomer, Peterson is displaying promising ability as a line plunger. Coach O'Donnell of the Purdue eleven has warned his players to expect a close game with DePauw.

BROWN SEEKS TO RECOVER BACK SALARY

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—Seeking to recover $8,000 alleged to be due him in back salary, Mordecai Brown, the noted three-fingered pitcher, has filed suit in the United States district court here for the appointment of a receiver for the defunct Federal League.

Luis J. Behan, counsel for Brown said tonight that when the Federal League signed a peace agreement with organized ball, the league's assets were distributed among the clubs of the National and American Leagues. Brown wants these assets collected and a receiver appointed for them. Charles H. Weeghman, president of the Chicago Nationals, who owned the Chicago franchise of the Federal League and P. D. Ball, president of the St. Louis Americans are among the twenty nine persons named as defendants. Ball was president of the St. Louis Federals. Officials of all Federal League clubs also are named as defendants.

Brown deserted organized baseball and signed a three year contract at a salary of $7,500 a year to manage the St. Louis Federals. He subsequently was released and the league, it is claimed, agreed to meet the obligations of his contract.

The suit was filed in Chicago at this time so summonses could be served on a majority of the defendants who are here attending the world's series.

Brown pitched for the Columbus Club of the American association during the past series.

SOX AND GIANTS CHICAGO BOUND

Both Teams Claim They Will Win Today's Game—Hose are None too Happy.

On Board the White Sox Special Train, Oct. 12.—The Chicago White Sox having lost their edge on the World's series by dropping two games to the New York Giants are hurrying west today to meet the Polo Grounders on Comiskey Park, where the American Leaguers hope to come out in front again. The Sox were none too happy a lot as they contemplated 18 successive innings of play without scoring a run against the Giants on the Polo Grounds.

"We simply could not hit," said Chick Gandil, "and that is all there is to it. If you can't hit you can't win. We will start again in Chicago. Benton pitched the best game so far against us. We have hit better pitchers than Schupp."

Some of the Sox Players complained that the Giants roughed them as they went into second base and said that if the New Yorkers were looking for trouble they would find it before the series was over. Manager Rowland plans to uncover Reb Russell against the Giants on Saturday. Cicotte says he is ready to go on the pitching hill on Saturday if Rowland calls upon him.

With the Giant Special On Board the Giants' Special Train, Oct. 12.—No more confident ball club ever sallied forth to battle than the New York Giants today enroute to Chicago and the fifth of their world's championship series with the White Sox. Having evened the count at two all, the National League champions were convinced that they had only to continue playing at same speed they developed in the two games at New York to overcome their American League foemen, and they felt not the slightest doubt on that score.

Yet the Giants carefully resisted any temptation to prophecy a complete triumph within the next two playing days. They were frank to confess that they regard the White Sox as already beaten, but they do not display the slightest tendency to underrate their opponents. They pressed a belief that Manager Rowland of the White Sox will almost certainly start Ed Cicotte, of shineball fame against them in tomorrow's engagement at Comiskey Park and anticipating another gruelling contest in which the "breaks" in the luck would probably decide the issue.

They also predicted that Harry (Slim) Sallee will lead the New York club into action in the fifth game of the series and the third time he played in Chicago and that he would be even more effective against the White Sox than he was last Saturday when he held the American Leaguers to seven hits while yielding a 2 to 1 decision to Cicotte.

All the Giants' players except McCarty were in perfect physical condition as the club traveled eastward and McCarty's injured shoulder had mended to such an extent that he was able to carry his own hand baggage. McCarty announced that while he will probably be unable to catch another game this year, he will be ready within a couple of days to resume play as a pinch-hitter. Manager McGraw had nothing to say for publication beyond the mere statement that he never had lost faith in his champions and that he regards their chances of winning the baseball championship of the world as better than ever.

SPECULATORS RAISE PRICE OF TICKETS

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—The victories of the New York Giants in the third and fourth games of the world's series, thus evening up the score, caused speculators to raise the prices of seats today for the fifth game which is to be played at White Sox park tomorrow.

For a single grandstand seat the brokers are demanding $10 and for a box seat $15.

The sale of reserved seats for tomorrow's game also was re-opened at the park box office today. The tickets are those redeemed from purchasers who bought for the three games here, as required by the management, and later found themselves unable to attend the third game of the series.

With the two clubs tied and the race for the championship standing where it was last Saturday when the series opened, those in charge of the ticket sale predicted that a capacity crowd of 32,000 would be on hand tomorrow.

The latest weather prediction for Saturday is "probably unsettled and warmer."

NEW YORK STOCK NOW SKY HIGH

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—Stock in the New York Giants which could be purchased for almost nothing last Saturday night, soared sky high over night, as the result of the two clean-cut victories over the Chicago White Sox at the Polo Grounds. The loyal fans, who even in the gloomy days following the first to White Sox victories, insisted that the Giants would come back, and are now claiming that McGraw's men will capture the world's pennant in four straight contests and are prepared to back their claims with cash. Betting has become more spirited locally and the Giants are now favored to win the series.

The good showing made by the Giants has quickened the baseball pulse and indications point to a record-breaking crowd here next Monday when the sixth game of the series will be played. Meanwhile fan dom has prepared to camp out at newspaper offices and everywhere else where information can be obtained and follow the progress of Saturday's game at Chicago.

The street railway of Johnstown, Pa., is engaging women to take the places of the motormen and conductors who have entered the army or gone to the mines or mills at higher wages.

WORLD SERIES WARFARE SHIFTS BACK TO CHICAGO

Fifth Game of Series Will be Played Today—Each Team Has Now Won Two Games—No Announcement Made as to Pitchers.

Chicago, Oct. 12.—The World Series warfare between the New York Giants and the Chicago White Sox enters into the closing stage of the baseball campaign here tomorrow, when the two teams meet in the fifth contest of the series at Comiskey Park. Each club has two victories notched in their bat handles and the club that wins two of the remaining three games to be played bears off the honors of the series.

The Giants came to town late today confident that they had the edge on their opponents and would decide the baseball supremacy by trimming the White Sox on their own grounds and then putting over the fourth victory in New York next Monday.

The Giants have faced the best of the Sox hurlers and say they do not fear them.

"We have beaten Cicotte," said Charley Herzog, the Giant second baseman and captain tonight, "and we can beat him and that shine ball anytime he goes against us."

The New York moundsmen are in fine shape and have had plenty of rest. Sallee is regarded as McGraw's choice for box work tomorrow, but if the weather continues cold—it was hovering around freezing tonight—it is probable that Poll Perritt will be chosen. McGraw has found, tho, that the Sox do not take kindly to left-handers and some of the Giants believe that the plan is to "south-paw" the Sox out of the series.

The White Sox came back home on a special train tonight no whit discouraged by the upset in New York. They gave full credit to "Rube" Benton for his work in Wednesday's game but could not understand why they did not make any progress against Schupp's fast curves. The Sox seemed to think that Benton always will be a hard proposition anytime he starts but believe either Sallee or Schupp will find themselves running to cover if they go against them again.

Eddie Cicotte said tonight that he was ready to work tomorrow if called upon, and Reb Russell is fairly begging Manager Rowland for a chance to face the Giants. Russell told everybody on the train that all thru the National League season the New York club had its troubles when ever a good lefthander showed any speed and curves.

The Sox agreed that the Giants looked like a smart and fast ball club on Thursday and that it was a team that would take a lot of beating once it was in its winning mood. Manager Rowland said tonight that he had not made up his mind as to the pitcher for tomorrow's game. It snowed here today and then rain but the weather man gave a cheering forecast of fair and cold. The members of the National Commission sent word ahead that the game would be played unless it rained or snowed or an unusual cold wave prevented.

Seats for Saturday's game sold tonight at a high premium. Fifteen dollars was paid for a box seat and $10 was the figure set by the speculators for a grandstand seat. Late tonight a shivering line of fans gathered at the gates of the unreserved stands. Fires were lit and men wrapped themselves in heavy coats and blankets.

Trains brought hundreds to town to witness the struggle.

ILLINOIS SWAMPED BY EASTERN NORMAL

Illinois College was swamped by Eastern Illinois Normal at Charleston Friday afternoon by a score of 64 to 0. It was Illinois' first game of the season and with practically a green team and very light, there was little chance of returning a victory. Normal has a number of last year's team and her new men were more seasoned than those of Illinois. However, Coach Harmon is not discouraged over the outlook but believes that the game will result in giving his men needed experience that will be of benefit in future games.

FIX DATE FOR HOOVER PLEDGE CARD DRIVE

During Week of Oct. 21 Effort Will Be Made to Get Signatures of Every Man, Woman and Child in U. S.—Card Gives Practical Food Conservation Suggestions.

The new Hoover pledge cards have been received at the headquarters of the Illinois Woman's Committee of the Council of National Defense. The campaign for the signing of these cards is slated for the week of October 21st, and the work of distributing them and securing signatures has been turned over to the Woman's Committee by Mr. Harry A. Wheeler, Illinois Food Administrator and Mr. Hoover's representative in Illinois.

The pledge card reads: "I am glad to join you in the service of food conservation for our Nation, and I hereby accept membership in the United States Food Administration." There are no fees or dues. Everyone who signs the card receives a membership card to hang in the window and another to hang in the kitchen, which gives practical food conservation suggestions. About a million and a half of each card are Illinois' allotment.

The cards will be distributed by the local units of the Woman's Committee of the Council of National Defense. House to house canvasses will be made, the co-operation of other organizations is being enlisted and the details of the campaign are so comprehensive that before the week has ended, Hooverism will have penetrated into every household in the country.

The United States Food Administration at Washington has issued the following statement regarding the pledge card:

"Most of the big things in our connection with the war have been accomplished by the typically American device of devoting a special week to a particular thing and making a national drive upon it. We have had Liberty Loan week, Red Cross week, and Volunteer week.

And, now, food pledge week, beginning October 21.

For seven days the press and every possible organization in the country will be directed to the single end of getting the signatures of every man, woman and child in the United States at the bottom of the food pledge. Everybody in the country has heard something about food saving and understands that it is one of the four biggest services necessary to win the war. Everybody is more or less kindly disposed toward food saving—and hopes that the other fellow is carrying out the provisions of the Food Administration, and intends to adopt the wheatless and meatless meal himself, before long.

But now the time has come to sign up and do all these necessary things. At the end of food pledge week the membership of the United States Food Administration should be 100 per cent of the people of the Nation.

Be ready to "do your bit" that week. It will be the biggest sort of business because it is to help win the war."

What a Farm Adviser Does

Some one asks what does a farm adviser do. He can do a thousand and one things but, of course, adapts his work to the county in which he is working. The following reports show what advisers are doing in some counties.

In Jackson county, Ind., samples of several varieties of alfalfa seed have been sown for trial variety plots on different types of soil.

In Lake county, Ind., a large amount of phosphate has been delivered to the farmers and a car load of purebred Holsteins were gathered together and shipped to Oklahoma.

In Tazewell county, Ill., the adviser kept a record of the cost of feeding hogs and found that one farmer got $2.00 a bushel for his corn his hogs ate and now other farmers are following that farmer's methods of feeding.

In Platte county, Wyo., the county agent contracted for the pick from 15 choice brood sows, pure on both sides for boys in the pig club he conducted, and the boys were allowed to pick their pigs.

In Vanderburg county, Ind., the county agent is promoting a community pig club and will hold a pig show this fall.

In Decatur county, Ind., the county agent conducted a demonstration in feeding ensilage to calves. One hundred and ten western calves were fed in two lots. Those receiving silage consumed $5.80 worth of feed for each 100 pounds of gain, while those receiving more corn and hay in place of the silage consumed $7.26 for each 100 pounds of gain. The selling value of the calves receiving silage was $10.50 per hundred more than that of the dry-fed lot. Farmers who saw this demonstration were convinced that silage is a profitable feed for use in fattening cattle.

Over in Adams county, Ill., the important lines taken up have been correction of soil acidity thru the use of limestone, application of rock phosphate to increase soil fertility, early seed corn picking, treatment of oats for smut, inoculation of legumes, increasing the acreage of soybeans, sweet clover and other new legumes, hog cholera control and demonstration of sprays in orchards.

In Tazewell county, Ill., the county adviser calls attention to economical cattle feeding during the winter months and expects to get actual figures from members of the Farm Bureau who have been successful each year in wintering their cattle cheaply and well. It has been found that it costs some members as much as others to meet this expense. At present prices cattle can be fed either for beef or milk at a profit.

In Travers county, Minn., the county adviser reports that as the result of a campaign for seed testing over 90 per cent of the farmers in his county planted tested seed last spring.

In Posey county, Ind., the adviser made a food supply campaign last spring and increased the acreage of potatoes three times.

The adviser in Jackson county, Ind., had on record enough early maturing seed corn to plant 3,000 acres.

The adviser in Knox county, Mo., has been holding hog-feeding demonstrations and reports a farmer co-operating in these demonstrations as putting on one and one-half pounds daily gain, at a cost of five cents per pound, on bluegrass.

The county agent of Cape Girardeau county, Mo., says there has been a great deal of spraying done in his community this season. He reports every orchard as having been sprayed thruout the season according to instructions.

The county agent of Fountain Co., Ind., states that the oats smut campaign in his county saved the farmers about $7,000 last year. It costs only about three cents an acre to treat the seed, so the cash value of the county agent's organized work in the county is well illustrated in this smut campaign. The savings on the oats crop in this particular county is many times more than the cost of the agent's office.

The county agent of Las Animas Co., Colo., says that on smut fields where seed was treated with formaldehyde loss was barely 1 per cent; while on untreated fields it was from thirty to fifty per cent.

The county agent of Tazewell county, Ill., reported he had ordered 312 bushels of seed wheat, which is, so far as is known, the best yielding and hardest strain of wheat for that county. Lists are made up of the wheat in the hands of farmers there which turn out extra well, so that members could get the best of seed which the county has produced to see this fall.

The county agent of Miami county, Kans., conducted a demonstration tour of farms for the school teachers of the county, 139 teachers and business men making up the complete control of the city government by the local socialists.

SOCIALISTS AIM TO RULE DAYTON

Dayton, O., Oct. 11.—With less than a month to elapse before the fall election, when three city commissioners for Dayton's city manager form of legislative body must be chosen, the non-partisan forces have laid the lines of battle for the hottest fight the city has seen for years, the purpose being to defeat the three Socialist candidates, nominated at the primaries on a partisan platform.

The battle promises to take on more than local interest, for it is generally admitted, even within the Socialist lines, that the three Socialist candidates, if elected, will immediately execute the pledge of the party, adopted in 1913, to overthrow the city charter.

As three votes on the commission is a majority, the non-partisans feel they have good reason to be concerned, for the election of the three Socialists, they point out, means the party. Six farms were visited, each showing a different demonstration.

The county agent of Pawnee county, Kans., has been kept very busy placing harvest hands and men for general farm work. Calls could not be supplied locally and the employment agencies in Newton, Wichita, and Kansas City were called upon to help out. More than 500 men were placed in about a week and a half.

The results of a recent oat smut demonstration in Jasper Co., Ind., made by the county agent, show that the 32 demonstration farms saved an average of 93 bushels of oats each by treating, meaning that 158,000 bushels could have been saved by treating on every farm in the county.

The county agent of Jackson county, Ind., mailed blanks to 1500 farmers in Jackson county, Indiana, asking that surplus farm produce they will have for sale. Provision is being made to sell what is needed locally and send the surplus to Indianapolis.

The county agent of Pettis county, Mo., says the first stage of the dairy project has been completed. This project has been promoted for the purpose of importing purebred Holstein cows into the county to improve dairy conditions.

The county superintendent of schools of Jasper county, Ind., says that he would like to see a plan to send the county agents should spend Saturday mornings in the winter at township institutes giving instructions and making plans for the neighboring teachers.

Says the county agent of Lynn county, Kans.: A large acreage of wheat will be planted this fall and a great many are planning to treat their seed for smut before planting. The seed bed preparation is receiving much thought and care and every precaution is being taken to secure a maximum yield next year.

The county agent of Sussex county, N. J., in July was endeavoring to cooperate as much as possible with all who would make August alfalfa seedlings, and wished to emphasize the importance of securing reliable seed grown in the northwest and of heavy liming; at as early a date as possible. Samples of soil were tested for acidity for all who desired to seed their fields to alfalfa.

The county agent of Livingston county, Ill., has just completed some very interesting data on the 1916 corn crop. Records were kept by 110 different farmers in the county. By using data from such a large number of farms, the law of averages obtains and the possibility of error is reduced to the minimum. Following is the data:

Corn, untreated land 29.35 bus.
Land manured 33.06 bus.
Land phosphated 39.41 bus.
Land clovered 40.98 bus.
Deep cultivation 31.24 bus.
Shallow cultivation 36.54 bus.

Here we see a gradually ascending scale of productivity. The apparent superiority of clover over phosphate is due largely to the fact that most of the land with clover had phosphate also. The figures show conclusively the advantages of shallow cultivation over deep cultivation for corn.

The county agent of Union county, Ore., has organized squirrel poisoning clubs in all sections of his county. Twenty five thousand acres have been covered in Union county in the distribution of poisoned grain, which is aimed at the extermination of ground squirrels there. The campaign has been the means of saving thousands of dollars to the farmers of that county this year.

The county agent of Mercer county, Ill., has a request for a number of Shorthorn bulls, possibly a carload. Anything under 1 1/2 years old will be acceptable.

The county agent of Jackson county, Mo., is much enthused with the work of the Cow Testing Association started in his county three years ago. There is a consistent increase each of the three years just finished in the number of cows in the association. The average milk production of cows per year was 5407, 5443 and 6223 for the three years, respectively.

T. A. Coleman in charge of county agent work in Indiana, says that a county agent should induce his members to realize how things can be made better. He said that a corn tour was in progress in Jasper county a few years ago and they stopped at a corn field where the owner said he was pleased to have them study his work because he believed his corn was in number one condition. Each man in the party was assigned a few rows and asked to count the stand, noting the number of stalks in each hill.

When the result was averaged it was found that there was only a 70 per cent stand and the farmer was very much chagrined to realize that he had been growing on ten acres what he should have been growing on seven.

CALLS UPON EVERY WOMAN TO SELL A BOND.

"There is much talk nowadays about patriotism—doing one's bit, and so on, but men and women of the present age are selfish and egotistical to a marked degree, and until every man, woman and child has the personal, definite feeling that this is his war, his fight, his duty, until every one gets right down to work for the war, only then will a real wave of patriotism sweep over America.

"Women of America, do you realize that the Government of the United States, the President, the financiers of this country have asked you to help them? They have frankly come out with the statement that they need and desire the help of women in floating this great second Liberty Loan.

"They have placed twelve women directors on the Executive Committee of the Federal Reserve Banking Committee, and no such acknowledgment of women's power and position has ever before been given. Every woman in this country can help. If she cannot buy a Bond she can sell one. If any woman, wishing to help, who has not yet been reached in the formation of organizations in her district, will apply to 1919 Broadway, Chicago, or at the headquarters of the Liberty Loan Committee in any city, town or village throughout the United States, her assistance will be gladly received. Remember selling the bonds is the work. The organization of committees is necessary and important, but the woman who brings in the actual sale of a Liberty bond has, in reality, done the big work, and I know of no better way of 'doing her bit' than for every woman in the country to sell a Bond."

Mrs. Willis G. Wood, Publicity Chairman, Woman's Liberty Loan Committee, Seventh Federal Reserve District.

ALL SOLDIERS FOR FRONT MUST HAVE GAS MASK

Capt. H. C. Woltman Writes To Friend Further Facts About Instruction Work He Is Giving at Camp Dodge.

A Jacksonville friend of Capt. H. C. Woltman, now at Camp Dodge, Iowa, has received the following letter from Capt. Woltman, in which he further outlines some of the work he is expected to do in instructing officers in the use of gas masks:

I had planned to write you a few lines before this time but I have been too busy and on the move from place to place.

I arrived here last week from Fort Sill, Okla., and by the way I was told that Gen. Grierson built Fort Sill in 1867. I was ordered to this camp, as divisional gas officer. There are about 25,000 troops here now and 20,000 more to come in a short time. My job is to give instructions to the officers of this division in gas defense, that is, how to defend themselves against poison gases at the western front. I have not been here long enough to know just how I am to teach all the officers as there are between 2 and 3 thousand from the highest officers down to and including the privates, but the War Department will no doubt devise some means to carry out the work.

The captains teach the privates in their companies. Every man going to the western front must be supplied with a mask to protect him against poison gases, and they must be taught how to use them. I find the highest officers absolutely ignorant along this line, but anxious to learn, so I expect a busy winter's work. It is cold up here, and no fire in the barracks, which are not completed, and the soldiers not well supplied with clothing, but things are being pushed along with all speed. My address for the present is 339 Regimental Hospital, Camp Dodge, Iowa.

Yours truly,
H. C. Woltman, Capt. M. R. C.

PAVING LOOP DISTRICT

J. E. Bretz, who has the contract for paving the loop district, yesterday had a force of men laying the concrete base on North West street. The block to Court street was practically completed last night. Materials are on hand and this concrete foundation will be at once extended along West Court street to the square and thence north on Sandy street to North street. Unless there is some unexpected delay in the receipt of concrete blocks the loop district paving can proceed rapidly. Mr. Bretz, according to his statement, has not had the concrete blocks shipped because if all the blocks needed were placed along the streets where they are to be laid they would obstruct traffic to a large extent. Paving in the loop district is a big job and a good many weeks will be necessary for its completion. Mr. Bretz has assured the board of local improvements that there will be no trouble about shipment of the blocks.

PHI ALPHA REGULAR MEETING

Phi Alpha society of Illinois held its regular meeting Friday evening. The following program was carried out:

Essayist—Drennen, Humane. Declaimer—Mutch, Me and My Family. Select Reader—Emil Wells, Marie Antoinette. Extempore Speaker—Crouch, College "Pep."

In the debate the question was, "Resolved: That the dormitory has more advantages than a residence out in town." Affirmative, Wells and Best. Negative, Howard and Ruth. The decision was awarded to the negative.

EVANGELIST EXALTED INFLUENCE OF HOME

Family Night at Grace Church Brought Large Audience to Hear Dr. Hanley—Home Is Weak Place in Religious Life—Choir Work Increasingly Effective.

The Union Revival services at the Grace church are increasing in interest and attendance, last night's congregation being the largest by far since the evangelistic party came to town. Everything went with more swing and power.

Mr. Fisher opened the meeting by introducing a new chorus which he taught the choir and congregation to sing "Brighten up your journey with a smile." "How many are excused from singing?" Mr. Fisher asked. As no one responded he said that he would expect everybody to sing. And the song service seemed to be more enjoyed than usual. "Stand up, Stand up for Jesus," "Praise Be Still," "The Inner Circle" and "God Give Us Homes" were sung with a hearty spirit which lifted everyone present to a higher level. Miss Clara Moore's violin solo was a pleasing feature. Rev. A. A. Todd, pastor of the Baptist church offered the prayer.

Applause Not out of Order. Dr. Hanley when making his announcements said that some one had criticized the management of the meeting for allowing applause in the services. But he contends that applause is not out of order. A laugh is as pious as a bowl. God must have loved fun or else He would not have made parrots and monkeys. In the church we are to spread sunshine.

Just before the sermon Mr. Fisher had all who are married or expect to be soon to sing on a verse. Then he had just the married folks, and finally all the grandparents sing. The choir is larger than ever and is doing excellent work. Mr. Voyles and Miss Ransom made the pianos throb with invigorating music.

It was "Family Night" and Dr. Hanley's subject was "Religion in the Home." His text was, "I know him that he will command his children and his household after him that they will observe the law of the Lord." "Home, needs no eulogy. You never can raise any nation higher than its homes. Anything that makes for the home life helps for the perpetuity of the country."

Nation Must Preserve Home Life. In these war times the homes are suffering. He quoted the lines: "We shall meet, but we shall miss him."

There will be a vacant chair. We will linger to caress him. When we breathe our evening prayer.

The nation which preserves its home life will be sustained in this war. Then Dr. Hanley honored the memory of the obscure man who blessed the world with that wonderful and beloved song "Home Sweet Home." Just when the evangelist reached his climax in eulogizing John Howard Payne, the author, Mr. Fisher led the choir in singing with profound effect the chorus of "Home, Home, Sweet, Sweet Home."

A Little Piece of Heaven—Home. "God knew what heavy trials we would have in this world so He broke off a little piece of Heaven and called it Home." But home may be the entrance to Perdition as well as the porch to Heaven. What kind of homes have we in Jacksonville, that is the question. He said that before coming to this city he had heard so much about the culture and intellectuality of the people here that he was almost afraid he could not dress just right or fit into the polished ways here. But he has found just common people here. "I'd rather be in a town that has a reputation for having more colleges to its population than any city in the state than to be in a city noted for its distilleries." (Applause.)

"But the home exists for a deeper purpose than to polish brains. The educated criminal is the worst criminal in the world. The home exists to develop Christian character." American Manhood now Decaying. He looked at the idea that American manhood is decaying. "To night America has broken all records of the world in the percentage of men who passed the examination for the army."

"The weakest place in religious life today is in the home. How many of you church people are teaching your children anything about God and the Bible? The Home should be the citadel of Religion."

A boy was asked what his father said just before they began to eat. The reply expected was that he asked a blessing. But the boy replied that his father said, "Go easy on the butter, kids, it is forty cents a pound."

Bible Is Neglected. "Not only is the blessing omitted, but the Bible is neglected. Instead of the Bible in the home we find the picture stories of Buster Brown and the Katzenjammer Kids and the moving pictures."

"A father can lead his boys under 12 anywhere he will. But if the father does not go to Sunday school he should not whip his boy for not going. Family prayer is passed up these days. Any man who amasses a fortune and fails as a father is a failure. A boy never forgets his father's or his mother's prayers. Here the evangelist told of his own father who was opposed to religion. So his mother was obliged to pray with her children in a closed room. Her prayers are a powerful influence for good."

He showed the difference between praying at the children and praying with them. A little girl prayed, "O God, make Jimmie a good boy, for you know he is such an onery creature." That is praying at a boy. In Burn's "Cotter's Saturday Night" we have an illustration of praying with the children.

Money a Feeble Thing. "Religion is the only thing that can insure your home. This war is demonstrating the fact that money is the most feeble thing we have. If this war burns out our American lust for gold and restores our love for home and God it will be worth all the cost." (Applause.)

He illustrated how often we give free vent to our meanness at home. "If you scold the head off your boy you can't get much religion into his heart."

The place to practice your right living is at the home. The irreligious homes fill your pool halls, gambling dens and places of wickedness.

Related Personal Experience. Finally he said that religion in the home is the only thing you can take across the grave. "What's your money or your fame or your pleasures when the hearse is at the door?" But if you have the religion of Christ in your home you are rich however poor you may seem to be. The closing words were a page torn out of his own experience in building his home. The message made a wonderful impression on the large audience.

Announcements. The Saturday evening service will be short and interesting. Sunday morning the churches will have their own services as usual. Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at Grace church Dr. Hanley will preach to church members only on "State Saints." He urges all young people especially to come.

Sunday evening at 7:30 he will preach on "Pilate Before Christ." This service will be for everybody. Mr. Fisher will sing "The Ninety and Nine."

Tuesday evening will be the great Patriotic service. The G. A. R. and the W. R. C. will be guests of honor. Everyone is asked to bring a flag. The subject of Dr. Hanley's address will be "The Modern Crusader," one of his most popular chautauqua lectures.

Thursday evening at 6 o'clock the business men are to have a luncheon at the Odd Fellows' Hall on East State street served by the Rebeccas. Dr. Hanley has been invited to deliver before the men his great lecture on "The Soul of Business."

He had a long distance call from Springfield yesterday asking him to come and deliver this address there at his own price. He turned them down, and will give it to the business men of this city free of charge. Tickets will be on sale tomorrow night. The hall will accommodate 240 and the price of the luncheon plates is 50 cents.

Miss Robertson met the Sunday school superintendents at the close of the evening's service.

CONCRETING REAR OF FIRE DEPARTMENT

Simeon Fernandes and Son were busy Friday laying concrete in the rear of the fire department where the horse stalls were formerly located. The concrete floor is being laid to drain from all directions to the center and will be used as a place to wash the fire apparatus. It will be a needed improvement as heretofore in muddy weather the apparatus had to be washed outside in front of the building.

CLARENCE SHEPPARD IS STOCK AND GRAIN FARMER

Has Fine Farm of 188 Acres South-west of Asbury Church—Makes Specialty of Black Polled Angus Cattle.

The traveler a little west and south of Asbury church will find the pleasant home of Clarence Sheppard, son of I. D. Sheppard, comfortably situated on a farm of 188 acres well adapted to either stock or grain. Mr. Sheppard is a careful farmer with a good home and suitable outbuildings and what is needed to make life agreeable and happy.

Mr. Sheppard has a good orchard containing apple trees of a large variety, fall and winter, and trims the trees carefully though he thinks they would be benefitted by spraying also. He says people have not been as careful as they might in this matter though it would pay well if attended to properly.

Mr. Sheppard is a man who takes great pleasure in tending the cattle market when able to do so and he has the beauty to do it with too. He makes a specialty of Black Polled Angus cattle and raises the calves. His farm is not the high priced, black prairie but it is good though it will pay to pasture it. He has eighteen cows of his favorite breed and he lets the calves run with them till weaned naturally at eight to ten months of age. He then puts them on full feed of wheat oats with some corn and clover hay and fodder. In the winter he is careful to supply good shelter for his stock as he believes the days of letting stock run without shelter through the winter have gone by. He also has good, clear running water for his cattle and hogs which is a great desideratum.

When his young cattle, 12 to 15 months old, are ready for the market nothing sells better and Mr. Sheppard has the advantage of growth and fat.

Prefers Hereford Stock
He thinks very much of the white face or Hereford stock and is thinking of getting a bull of that kind to run with his cows as he thinks it will result in some good stock. His father also has some good Black Polled which he values very highly.

For hogs Mr. Sheppard likes the straight Durocs and generally gets his breeding stock from Iowa and is very careful to avoid inbreeding. He likes the Jersey Duroc Reds for various reasons. He thinks they are rather the most hardy of the good breeds, more thrifty and industrious and good roasters and they are prolific breeders. For brood sows he has long sheds divided into rooms for families of pigs. He thinks well of hog sheds though there are some objections. If a sow has her pigs in one and another sow, a little stronger, wants the shed, she will get it and make trouble in the camp. Then too they lack air and sunshine which are essential.

He likes to have his sows farrow in March and September so that the late pigs will get ready for winter in due time. Last year Mr. Sheppard's sows averaged nine pigs to the litter which was certainly good. He says the greatest true story he ever heard of large hog families was a case in the herd of Abe Reid, residing near Manchester. That gentleman owned a sow which gave birth to 21 living pigs and they were raised though a part of them had to be given to others to raise. Mr. Sheppard much likes to have his sows run on clover when it is possible though he gives them in addition a little corn. In the winter he reduces the feed somewhat but likes to have his sows get all the milk that can be spared them. If he can get good old meal he likes that also for his stock. He weans the pigs when ten to twelve weeks old and hastens the time when they will be independent of their mothers.

Sells Stock on Farm
He starts his young pigs on oats and corn, oil meal and tankage which he values highly. He markets from 8 to 12 months of age if he gets them started off all right. He sells most of his stock right on the farm as he has a reputation at stake and doesn't want to take any chances.

He likes the Reid Yellow Dent corn which he regards as best for all purposes. For his fattening hogs he takes a number of young stock and then cuts a little clover or other kind of hay. For his wintered stock he has a large shed where he feeds and thus saves the offal for fertilizing. He begins with clover pasture or hay and finds that good to balance the ration. He adds oats at first and then corn till the hogs are ready to ship. He has used some wheat and with pork the present price it will pay though it seems very much out of place to give wheat to hogs.

NOTICE
Streets are being cleared away and you will have no difficulty in getting to my place of business where you can get your gasoline at 21 cents per gallon.

SCOTT COUNTY WOMEN STUDY REGISTRATION

Eight Here to Make Inquiry About Work Planned by Council of Defense.

Eight women from Scott county attended the meeting held at the public library Friday afternoon in the interest of registration of women in the National Council of Defense, Illinois division.

These meetings are held Monday and Friday afternoon of each week at the Library at 2:30 o'clock and are for the purpose of giving instructions in the methods of registration of women.

The instructions are in charge of Miss Elson Barnes who has given much thought and time to the work. Miss Barnes said last night that many inquiries had been made as to how many times a registrar should attend meetings in order to be qualified for their duties.

In Chicago, Miss Barnes says, the registrars attend two meetings. At the first one the objects of the National Council of Defense are outlined and the method of filling out registration cards is explained. At the second meeting the registrars are required to fill out the cards, thus giving them actual experience.

The women of Scott county are showing a great interest in the coming registration. The visit here was for the purpose of ascertaining the methods being employed by Morgan county women. Much interest was shown in the meeting Friday afternoon. Those in charge say that all women who intend to act as registrars should attend at least two meetings and then as many more as possible.

Extra values in blankets, underwear, hosiery and gloves.
